Biography

Alexander Lapins is Assistant Professor of Tuba and Euphonium at the University of Tennessee School of Music, teaches at Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp and Miraphone Academy, and is tubist of the UT Faculty Brass Quintet and Quintasonic Brass. He was previously on faculty at Northern Arizona University, Indiana State University and the University of Indianapolis. A diverse artist, Dr. Lapins is an enthusiast of early music, has taught classes on the history of rock music, and is the only tubist to have won fellowships at both the Tanglewood Music Center and the Henry Mancini Institute. He has been a featured soloist with a variety of bands and orchestras, and has performed with the New Mexico Philharmonic Orchestra, Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, Cincinnati Opera Orchestra, Charleston Symphony Orchestra, Charlotte Symphony Orchestra, Flagstaff Symphony Orchestra, Disney Collegiate All-Star Band, the Guy Lombardo Orchestra, the New Sousa Band and Harvey Phillips' Tubacompany. As a session musician Dr. Lapins can be heard on hundreds of recordings for a wide variety of productions and publications. In Flagstaff and then Knoxville, Dr. Lapins hosted the 2011 Southwest Regional Tuba/Euphonium Conference and the 2016 International Tuba/Euphonium Conference. Originally from northern Virginia, he has performed in Europe, South America, Asia and throughout the United States, and earned degrees from James Madison University, the University of Michigan and Indiana University. His principal teachers include Daniel Perantoni, Fritz Kaenzig, Kevin Stees, Tony Kniffen and Mike Bunn. Alexander Lapins is a Miraphone Artist.
