| | SONG II |
| | |
| | When I open up my eyes, my eyes every morning |
| | I hear the birds singing, they are singing "Modeh Ani" |
| | I am jealous of the birds, the birds, get up quick, not lazy |
| | I wash hands and eyes, make a blessing, take into the mouth |
| | Having eaten, having drunk, I am dressed fresh and fine |
| | Charity having not forgotten, I run to school quickly |
| | |
| | Charity Charity we have to strive for |
| | To give our entire life |
| | To help the poor and the sick |
| | You will have long years. |
| | |
| | Rivky has a mitzvah, she has a penny. You also put in Esty? Esty has a mitzvah, she has a penny. Mindy has a mitzvah. She has one, two, three, four - four pennies. |
| | |
| | Everyone should sing with Morah: |
| | |
| | Song singing: Let us see, let us see, who has a mitzvah |
| | Let us see, let us see, who has a mitzvah |
| | |
| | Mindy. (Morah reading Mitzvah notes): Mindy played very nicely on Shabbos and Sunday with her sisters. |
| | O.K. Mindy, you are a big mitzvah girl, Mindy. Morah is going to put the mitzvah note in the envelope. |
| | O.K. Who sees the nice mitzvah note? Mindy. |
| | |
| | Another Note; Dear Morah, Mindy was such a big mitzvah girl. She gave some of her snack to her cousin. O.K., you shared with your cousin, |

| | |
|--|--|
| | Hooray., and her mother made such a nice picture how she shares the potatoe chips. O.K., we'll put it into her mitzvah envelope. |
| | |
| | Modeh Ani |
| | Raishis Chochma |
| | Torah Ziva Lanu Moshe |
| | Shma Bnie Musar... |
| | |
| | Song: G-d of the Universe, I hope onto you and to uphold your dear commands |
| | That I will do whatever my father and mother tell me |

| | Vayezeh is the portion of the week, Vayezeh is the portion of the week, Vayezeh is the portion of the week. |
| | Sunday, Monday - Today is Monday Daled Kislev, what was yesterday? Gimel. What is today? Daled Kislev, Today is Monday, Daled Kislev. Let us sing, and when we come to Kislev, we will clap our hands. |

| | |
|--|---|
| | |
| | Nisan, Iyar, Sivan, Tamuz, Av, Elul, Tishrei, Cheshvan, Kislev, (clap their hands), Shvat, Adar, these are the twelve months of the year. |
| | |
| | Morah is going to give a prize for those that brought back the chart and the Mommy wrote that they were good an entire week, they listened to their mother and father, they said Modeh Ani, and washed their hands in the morning, they brought charity, they said blessings before eating, and ate nicely breakfast and supper. Listened to their father and mother the first time, not the second time, that's right. Morah has here one Mommy that wrote that the whole week, Ruchele listened the very first time. The first time, her mother didn't have to call her a second time and all the other Mommys also made checks. They spoke nicely, not fresh to Daddy and Mommy, practiced the Aleph Bais at home, put away the toys and went to sleep on time. Morah will give a prize for everyone that brought this back. |
| | Child: Morah me? |
| | |
| | Morah: Not you, another Ruchele. |
| | |
| | Who gave their Mommy and Daddy what we made - what did we make on the door? What did we put on the door? What was written on it? Are we allowed to wake up a Daddy or a Mommy when they're sleeping? |
| | |
| | C: No! |
| | |
| | M: What do we have to do? |
| | |
| | C: Be quiet. |
| | |
| | M: Be quiet, and if it's very very important, are we allowed to wake them up? If the baby is crying or something G-d forbid happens, then we're allowed to wake up a Daddy, Mommy. but otherwise, when a Daddy Mommy are sleeping... |
| | |
| | C: ...Or if the baby fell out of the crib |
| | |
| | M: That's right. If it's an emergency, you are allowed to wake up a Daddy or a Mommy. And who did the Mitzvah of "Honoring your father and mother" on Shabbos. |
| | C: Me (in unison) |
| | |

| | |
|--|--|
| | M: Ruchele, what did you do? Tell the Morah, what did you do? Did you help your Mommy for Shabbos? With what did you help? |
| | |
| | C: By bringing the food. |
| | |
| | M: B bringing the food to the table? Oh, you did the Mitzva of “Honoring your father and mother”. |
