ABOUT THE MRD'S "And now, presenting 'Virginia's Finest,' the James Madison University Marching Royal Dukes!" This familiar announcement begins each exciting halftime as one of America's outstanding collegiate marching bands takes the field with impressive music arrangements and fast-paced drill moves. With humble beginnings in 1972, the first year of football at JMU, the Marching

Royal Dukes have evolved into a 475-member organization that performs at all home football games, travels to away games to support the Dukes, and also plays an active role in community events and performs extensively around Virginia and the Mid-Atlantic as an exhibition band for band contests and other events. The Marching Royal Dukes have become one of the most outstanding college marching bands in America today.

ABOUT JMU James Madison University was established as the State Normal and Industrial School for Women at Harrisonburg by the Virginia General Assembly in 1908. Since then, it has grown into today's coeducational and comprehensive university with an enrollment of over 17,000 students, and a faculty and staff of over 2,000. Expanding upon its 696 acres in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley, the JMU campus is home to over 100 buildings, including a new Athletic Performance Center (2005), Biotechnology Building, and a second state-of-the-art Campus Library (2008). Construction of a new Performing Arts Center is currently underway, with anticipated completion slated for 2010. James Madison University is recognized repeatedly by national publications as one of the finest institutions of its type in America.
